

DHHS Agency Prefix

Field Definition

The DHHS Agency Prefix Code (OPDIV) code assigned by DHHS/PHS to identify its various component agencies for the letter of credit (LOC) drawdown from the Division of Payment Management System/Payment Management System from a federal awarding agency. It consists of one (1) alphanumeric character used to identify HHS Operating Divisions and Non-HHS Awarding Agencies.

The DHHS Agency Prefix is required when the payment method of the federal award indicates "Division of Payment Management System/Payment Management System" and is letter of credit (LOC).

When creating a federal award and the awarding agency falls under DHHS the value will flood into the flexfield from the customer file.
