Research Leadership

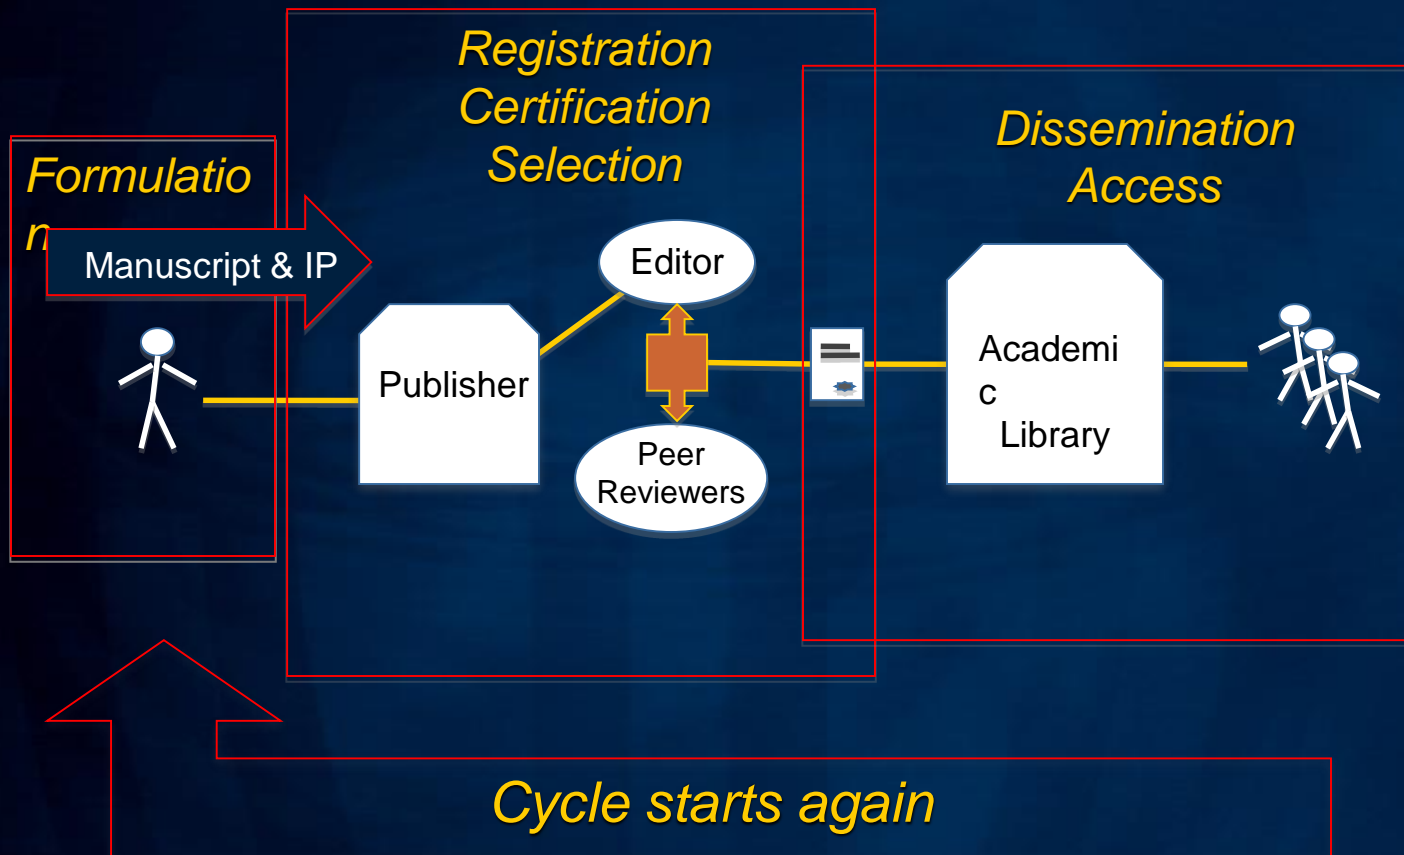

Professional Development Program

Developed and guided by the RF, CPD and a diverse Faculty Advisory Council

Program Rationale

- The Research Leadership Professional Development program is intended to help faculty and staff learn the competencies (skills, abilities, and knowledge) needed to be a successful researcher. The program has been designed to support SUNY's strategic plan for research: <http://www.rfsuny.org/Our-Work/Strategic--Operational-Planning/>. It is applicable to all disciplines and institution types.

Created by Lee Van Orsdel and modified by Sarah L. Shreeves for the ACRL National Conference, Scholarly Communications 101 Workshop, updated by Sarah Shreeves on April 26, 2012 and by Kevin Smith on May 31, 2012.

UFS Resolution on Open Access Publication (April 2015)

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the University Faculty Senate encourages SUNY, its Libraries, and the Faculty to explore and support alternatives to publishing scholarship with commercial publishers; and BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Executive Committee of the University Faculty Senate work with the SUNY Provost office, the SUNY Librarians Association, the SUNY Council of Library Directors, and other stakeholders to create a task force to explore alternative models of scholarly publishing and communications, and their impact on promotions and continuing appointment, and to report back to the University Faculty Senate with an interim report at the Winter 2016 UFS Plenary meeting, and with a final report at the Spring 2016 UFS Plenary meeting, regarding the feasibility, desirability and logistics of adopting such alternative models.

Possible Next Steps

- SUNY-wide OA Policy (Harvard model adapted widely most recently by Colorado State also University of California)
