Sponsored Program Expenditures – Introduction

The State University of New York is the largest comprehensive university system in the United States. SUNY consists of 64 campuses with a total enrollment of about 460,000, almost 90,000 SUNY employees, nearly 7,300 academic programs, and an estimated 3 Million alumni world-wide. For the 2012-13 academic year, SUNY granted about 93,000 degrees.

Pursuant to the 1977 Agreement between SUNY and the Research Foundation for SUNY, the RF partners with thirty-one state-operated campuses to manage a wide array of externally-funded sponsored programs activities. Measuring the expenditures that occur in the conduct of sponsored programs is one universally-accepted means by which educational institutions can evaluate their portfolio of programs and activities. This report seeks to provide a review of the sponsored program expenditures at the thirty-one state-operated campuses managed through the RF and includes the following elements:

- Growth percentage of R&D for the top 10 public university systems;
- Fiscal year-end expenditures by campus sector and campus location (by direct, F&A, and total expenditures);
- Expenditures by NACUBO classification;
- Expenditures by sponsor type and source of funding (i.e. federal, federal flow-through, and nonfederal);
- Campus-by-campus detail with key points noted; and
- Appendix materials offering additional detail and formats through which the data can be viewed.

Sponsored Program Expenditures – Glossary and Acronyms/Abbreviations

Glossary

Facilities and Administration (F&A)	OMB Circular A-21 defines F&A as costs that cannot be identified specifically with a particular sponsored program. As an example the cost associated with utilities in campus space used for conducting sponsored programs.
Federal Flow Through	Federal funding for a sponsored program that results or “flows” through a nonfederal third party entity to the RF.
Fiscal Year	The Research Foundation’s fiscal year runs July 1 through June 30.
Sponsored Program	Sponsored programs are externally-funded activities in which a grant, contract, or cooperative agreement is entered into by the RF for the performance of a pre-approved scope of work. Frequently, detailed financial and programmatic reports are provided to the sponsoring agency.
Sponsored Program Expenditures	Expenditures for salaries, fringe benefits, travel, supplies, OTPS, and F&A that result from conducting sponsored programs.

Sponsored Program Expenditures – Executive Summary

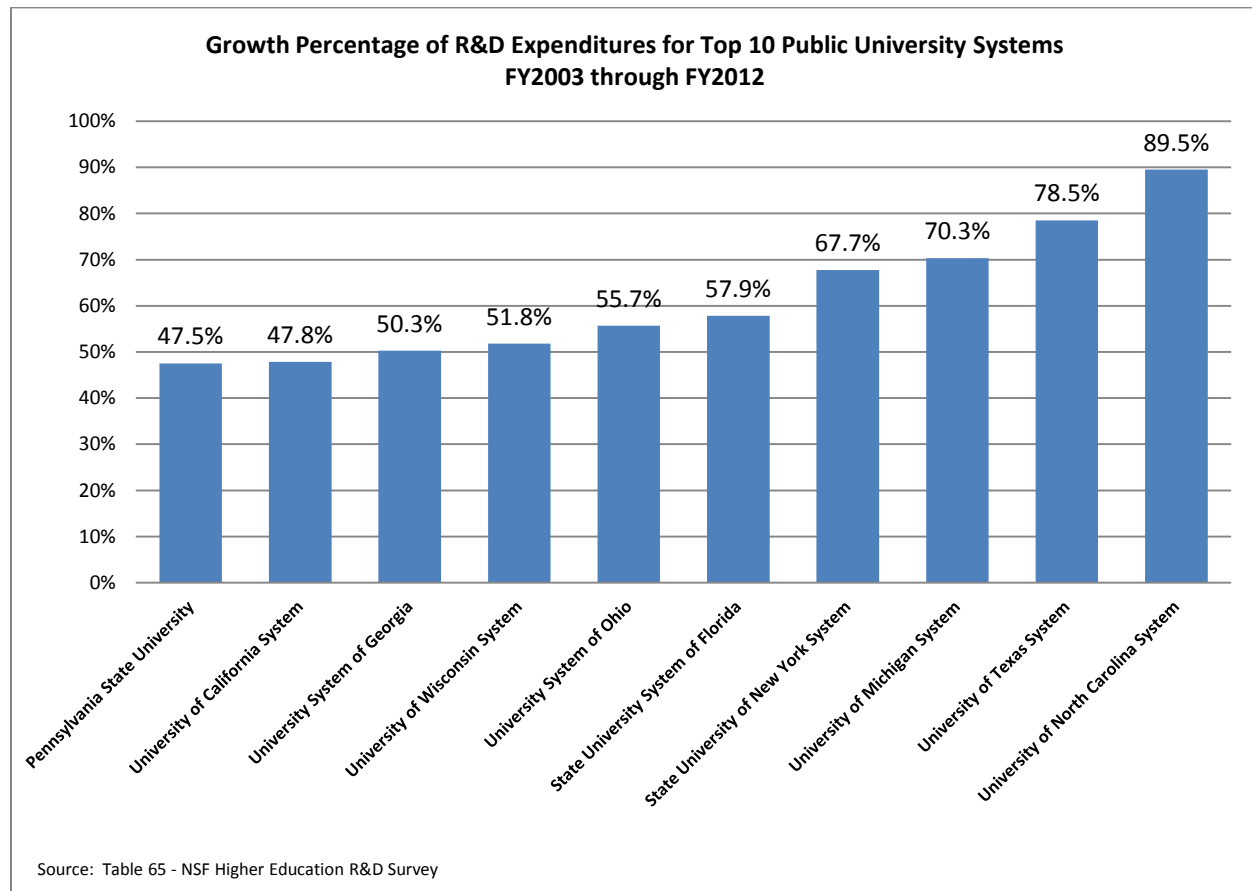

About 2,600 faculty and researchers at thirty-one state-operated SUNY campuses conducted 6,927 projects in conjunction with the RF. Some key points to consider with respect to sponsored program expenditures for FY2013-14 associated with those various projects and initiatives include the following:

- From FYs 2003 through 2012, SUNY has the fourth highest rate of growth (nearly 68%) in R&D expenditures of the top 10 public university systems. (NSF Higher Education R&D survey)
- Total expenditures are up about $20.6 Million or 2% from $983.2 Million in FY2012-13 to $1003.9 Million in FY2013-14.
- Total expenditures include two components; direct expenditures and facilities and administration (F&A) expenditures.
 - Direct expenditures from federal sources are down nearly 6% or about $21.4 Million, expenditures from federal flow-through sources are down about 3% or $4.1 Million, and expenditures from nonfederal sources are up by 10% or about $46.1 Million.
 - F&A expenditures from federal sources are down about 8% or $7.5 Million, expenditures from federal flow-through sources are down about 8% or $2.2 Million, and F&A expenditures from nonfederal sources are down over 9% or about $13.3 Million.
 - In terms of total expenditure volume, the significant increase in nonfederal direct expenditures offset the decline in direct expenditures from both federal and federal flow through sources in FY2013-14. Of note is the impact on F&A expenditures that results when replacing federal funding with nonfederal funding. F&A is assessed on federal funding at a significantly higher rate than on nonfederal sources. Consequently, the increase in nonfederal direct expenditures, while substantial, does not provide a corresponding increase in F&A expenditures. The result is a decrease in overall F&A expenditures ($13.3 Million) for FY2013-14 even as direct expenditures increase by nearly $34 Million.
- Specific sponsor highlights:
 - NIH expenditures have declined by about 8% or $14.3 Million from $177.2 Million in FY2012-13 to $162.9 Million in FY2013-14.
 - Expenditures from Empire State Development Corporation have increased by about 177% from $83 Million in FY2012-13 to about $172 Million in FY2013-14.

Sponsored Program Expenditures – Executive Summary

- Expenditures from IBM funding increased by about 22% from $50.4 Million in FY2012-13 to $64.9 Million in FY2013-14.
- Expenditures from Sematech decreased by about $33.2 Million from $33.8 Million in FY2012-13 to only $528,700 in FY2013-14.
- Expenditures from the Dormitory Authority of the State of New York decreases by about $17 Million from $18.1 Million in FY2012-13 to $1.1 Million in FY2013-14.
- BY NACUBO classification, sponsored programs focusing on organized research make up nearly 75% of total expenditure volume or $749.9 Million, public service sponsored programs make up about 14% of total expenditure volume or $141.4 Million, and training sponsored programs make up about 6% of total expenditure volume or $61.1 Million.

Sponsored Program Expenditures – Growth Percentage for Top 10 Public University Systems

Key Observations:

- SUNY is in the top 10 in R&D expenditures for public university systems FYs 2003-2012 according to the National Science Foundation Higher Education R&D survey.
- Measuring growth in R&D expenditures as a percentage, SUNY has the fourth highest rate of growth of the top 10 public university systems.

Note: Expenditures reported in the annual NSF Higher Education R&D Survey by SUNY state-operated campuses include RF R&D expenditures and may include state allocations or other sources of funding used to support R&D at the campus. Accordingly, expenditures reported in the NSF HERD survey may be different from expenditures reported by the RF.

Key Observations:

- Expenditures resulting from PHS funding are down about $14.4 Million or 8% from $177.3 Million in FY2012-13 to $162.9 Million in FY2013-14. The three campuses with the largest declines in expenditures from PHS funding include Stony Brook (-$5.2 Million), Downstate Medical Center (-$4.8 Million), and Upstate Medical University (-$3.2 Million).
- The major sponsor categories provide insight into expenditures from nonfederal sources. Nonfederal expenditures from the major sponsor category of business and industry sources are down about $33.6 Million. Expenditures from Sematech are down about $33 Million. Nonfederal expenditures from the major sponsor category of agencies, authorities and public benefit corporations are up about $72 Million. Of note, expenditures at CNSE from the Empire State Development Corporation have increased by over $94 Million from $72.5 Million in FY2012-13 to about $166.9 Million in FY2013-14.

University Centers and Doctoral Degree Granting Institutions

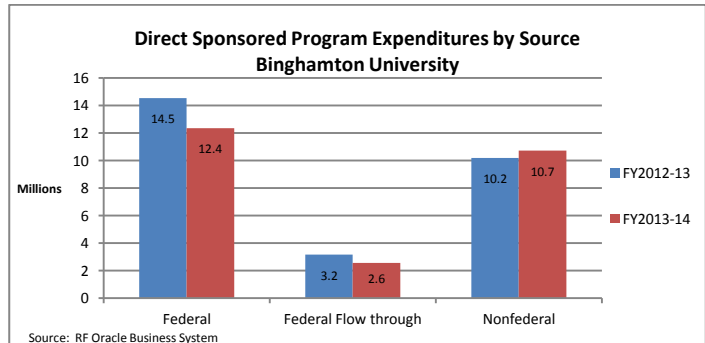

Sponsored Program Expenditures – Binghamton University

Summary: Total sponsored program expenditures for Binghamton University are down about 9% from $34.9 Million in FY2013 to $31.7 Million in FY2014, a reduction of about $3.2 Million. Expenditures from federal and federal flow through sources are down 15% and 21% respectively.

Sponsored Program Expenditures – Binghamton University

Key Observations:

- The decrease in direct federal expenditures is largely the result of a decline in US Navy Office of Naval Research (-$1.3 Million), the NIH (-$526,600), NSF (-$470,000), and the Bureau of Health Professions (-$296,000).
- Federal flow through expenditures resulting from Broome Tioga BOCES funding are down $930,000.
- Reviewing the major sponsor categories within the nonfederal funding sector (see Appendix), some shifts of note include: 1) The business and industry category is down about $430,400; 2) The foreign category is up about $534,000; and 3) The NYS agencies, authorities & public benefit corporation category is up about $429,400.

Campus Outlook:

- The campus has hired about 60 new faculty during 2013-14. Many of the faculty hired are focused in five key Transdisciplinary Areas of Excellence (TAE), which have been identified by the campus as having high potential for research excellence and growth.
- Recent awards include a $12.8 Million, four-year grant from the Department of Energy to fund the North East Center for Chemical Energy Storage, directed by chemist M. Stanley Whittingham, and an $8.2 Million, five-year grant from the National Institutes of Health for the Developmental Exposure Alcohol Research Center, led by neuroscientist Linda Spear.

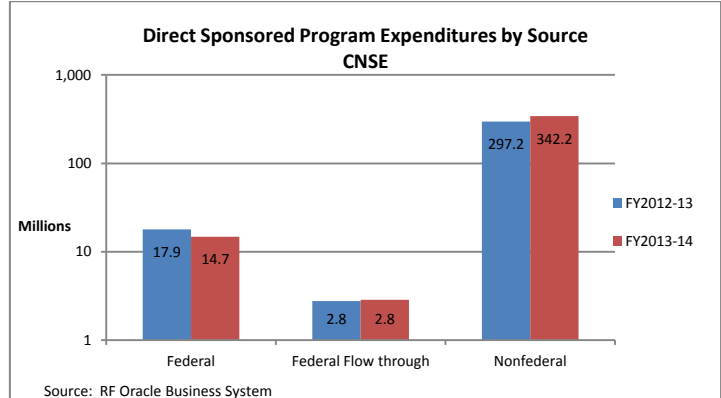

Sponsored Program Expenditures – CNSE

Summary: Expenditures for FY2014 are up nearly 11% from $329.5 Million in FY2013 to $365.5 Million in FY2014 as the result of increased nonfederal activity.

Total	329,485,565	365,508,174	10.9%

Sponsored Program Expenditures – CNSE

Key Observations:

- The decrease in direct federal expenditures (about $4.2 Million) results largely from the US Department of Energy (-$1.3 Million), National Science Foundation (-$868 K), Economic Development Administration (-$648K), National Institute on Aging (-$532K), and US Air Force Research Laboratory (-$353K).
- There are two elements concerning F&A expenditures that need to be considered:
 - F&A recovery, is down significantly in FY2014 as federal activity to which higher, federally-negotiated and approved F&A rates are applied was replaced with nonfederal activity in which F&A is assessed at a substantially lower rate. Reviewing FY2013 F&A expenditures as a ratio of direct expenditures, federal and federal flow through activity returned F&A at a ratio of 21.9% and 21.1% respectively while nonfederal activity returned F&A at a ratio of only 2.4%. For FY2014, federal and federal flow through activity returned F&A at a ratio of 19% and 19.4% respectively while nonfederal activity returned F&A at a ratio of only .7%.
 - Equipment expenditures are also an important consideration in any review of F&A volume as equipment is excluded from the base calculation in computing F&A costs. As the chart below shows, while CNSE's equipment expenditures in FY2014 exceeded FY2013 levels by over $55 Million, expenditures using federal funds actually decreased by about $2 Million. Accordingly, the significant increase in equipment expenditures between FY2013 and FY2014 did not create a scenario in which a greater volume of equipment expenditures was excluded from federal F&A recovery.

Source: RF Expenditure Profile

- In the nonfederal sector, expenditures from business and industry are down about $34.3 Million (expenditures from Sematech funding are down about $33 Million) while expenditures from the NYS agencies, authorities & public benefit corporations category are up about $74.5 Million (expenditures from Empire State Development Corporation funding are up about $94.3 Million).

Campus Outlook:

- CNSE will be working with MIT and other university and industry partners to apply for a Department of Defense competition to provide more than $100 Million to launch a new Institute for Manufacturing Innovation on Integrated Photonics.
- In FY2013-14, CNSE had a 21% increase in application submissions and a 12% increase in funding.

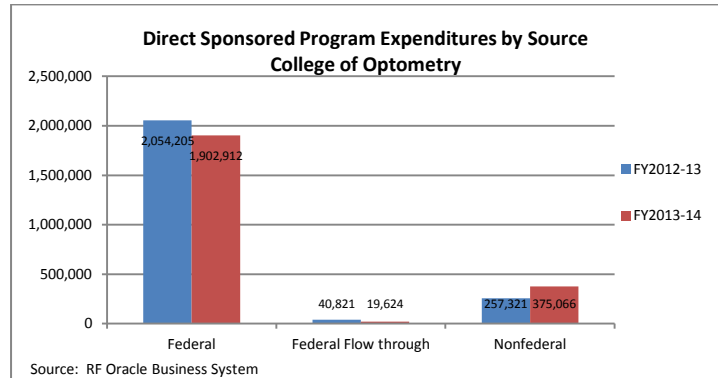

Sponsored Program Expenditures – College of Optometry

Summary: Total sponsored program expenditures are down about 3.6% from $3.2 Million in FY2012-13 to about $3.0 Million in FY2013-14. In FY2013-14, federal flow through expenditures are down 35% while nonfederal expenditures have increased by almost 49%.

- From nonfederal sources, significant reductions resulted from the Dormitory Authority of the State of New York ($2.4 Million) and Empire State Development Corporation ($6.6 Million).
- A review of the ratio of F&A expenditures to direct expenditures provides a clear indication of the benefit of federal and federal flow through funding in terms of F&A recovery. As the chart below shows, federal and federal flow through funding returns F&A at a significantly higher ratio than funding from nonfederal sources.

Federal	0.37	0.35
Federal Flow Through	0.33	0.31
Nonfederal	0.09	0.12

Campus Outlook:

- Stony Brook has experienced a net increase of over 100 new faculty compared with 5 years ago, with most of this increase occurring within the past two years. Since 2011-12, these new faculty have combined to bring $70 million in new research awards. Accordingly, in the first quarter of the current fiscal year, research expenditures are up 4.5% compared to the first quarter of the prior year.
- The campus has launched a “Discovery Fund” with philanthropic support from the Stony Brook Foundation. This fund will serve as an early career competition that will culminate in a public event where each of the four finalist PIs will present their great idea and a panel of external judges will choose the winner of a $100,000 award. The public event also serves as a vehicle to encourage philanthropic additional support for the fund.

This first of its kind system will help better protect the public against extreme weather events once fully implemented. Four recent awards have been received from National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration and one award from Department of Energy also related to Atmospheric Science.
- The RNA Institute is awaiting review of a T32 NIH Training Grant ($2.3M). The Institute's NIH Biomedical Research Resource pre-proposal has been approved for a full proposal ($5M over five years), and it plans to submit a revised NSF Science and Technology Center proposal ($17M over five years) that had been well received at the last submission. One of the most expansive initiatives launched in recent years by the university, RENEW will harness the expertise of more than 100 faculty across the university, with the goal of hiring 20 more outstanding faculty with expertise in such areas as aquatic ecology, pollution law, behavioral economics, environmental planning, community health and energy/environmental systems. UB RENEW is anticipated to be a major catalyst for future sponsored research programs in the field of sustainability.
- UB will further develop the capacity to undertake multidisciplinary research, education, and engagement, and invest in important, defined areas through a newly established Communities of Excellence program. Communities will address areas of human/social/global concern that require thought leadership and significant attention from multiple disciplines. The Communities of Excellence will not simply be a faculty hiring plan, but will also involve support infrastructure including staff and student support, vital instrumentation and space to house a community. Communities are expected to consider external sources of investment (e.g., extramurally funded projects/programs) to best leverage the community's goals and potential for significant, sustained impact.
