

Congressman Anthony Brindisi was born and raised in Utica.

Known for his independent, bipartisan leadership, Congressman Brindisi was elected to Congress in 2018. Congressman Brindisi serves on the House Armed Services Committee and plays a pivotal role in maintaining NY-22's prominent place in our national defense. He represents New York's 22nd congressional district which includes all of Chenango, Cortland, Madison, and Oneida counties, and parts of Broome, Herkimer, Oswego, and Tioga counties.

Additionally, he serves on the House Veterans' Affairs Committee, and the House Agriculture Committee where he works to bring the voices of Upstate New York servicemembers, farmers, and Veterans to Congress.
