Contracts Series: Review and Interpretation of Contractual Terms and Conditions

In this 4-part series, hosted by the RF Office of General Counsel, new sponsored program staff learn how to review and interpret contractual terms by breaking down contracts term by term. Participants learned the basics of research agreements, clinical trial agreements, data use agreements, purchase order terms and conditions, as well as spotting and resolving risk-related terms and conditions such as indemnifications, publication restrictions, subject injury, warranty clauses, intellectual property, confidentiality/non-disclosure provisions and more.

- ❖ If you are responsible for reviewing and interpreting contracts, this series might be right for you
- ❖ Materials are confidential and Supervisor and General Counsel pre-approval is required
- ❖ Contact learning@rfsuny.org to request access
