Reason for Policy
Research Foundation (RF) has a Credit Card Programs Policy and a comprehensive Travel Handbook which describe restrictions and provide guidance to cardholders and RF employees engaged in or acting in support of RF business travel. This Central Office (CO) Policy describes further restrictions and guidance for CO employees.

Statement of Policy
RF CO employees are required to follow the guidance and adhere to the additional restrictions related to travel and credit card usage that are outlined in this Policy.

Travel Card
RF CO employees that are required to travel in order to carry out RF business are encouraged to obtain a Bank of America Travel Card and charge to it all travel related expenses. Applicants for the Travel Card must sign the RF Travel Card Agreement.

Recommended Uses
The Travel Card should be used for the following purchases:

- Transportation (e.g., airfare, car rental, train, taxi, etc.)
- Accommodations
- Meals
- Incidentals

Transportation
Travelers are expected to travel by the method most conducive to achieving the objectives of the trip while balancing cost, time and safety. RF CO employees must abide by these additional restrictions:

- Personal Vehicles
  - RF CO employees may use a personally owned vehicle for official business-related travel. When using a personally owned vehicle, RF CO employees will be reimbursed at the current mileage rate established by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS); however,
  - If use of a rental vehicle is less expensive than use of a personally owned vehicle, RF CO mileage reimbursement will be limited to the amount that would have been incurred for a rental vehicle, unless there is an approved justification for using the personally owned vehicle. The CO Transportation Justification Form must be used to document relevant vehicle expenses.

- Airfare
  - If an RF CO employee is including personal days(s) either before the first day of official business-related travel or after the last, the employee must save a print comparison or other reliable verification the day the flight was booked showing what the cost to the RF would have been if they had not had a personal segment of travel – if the cost is higher due to personal travel, then the employee is responsible for the difference in cost.

Travel Expense Reimbursement Request Submission Deadline
The submission deadline for travel expense reimbursements will be 45 calendar days from the date of return from the travel. In the event that an expense report cannot be submitted within this timeframe, a completed Travel Waiver Form (CO Only) will be required.

Purchasing

Purchasing Card (P-Card)
The individual responsible for the P-Card must sign the RF Purchasing (P-Card) Administrator Agreement Form and safeguard the card against use by unauthorized individuals by placing it in a secure location. Additionally, there should be no photocopying of the P-card to eliminate potential fraud.

Recommended Uses
The P-Card should be used for the following:

- Supplies
- Conference registration
- Membership fees
- Other office/departmental expenses

Unauthorized Uses
The P-Card may not be used for the following:

- Personal expenses
- Travel (this includes airfare, hotel reservations, transportation (including Uber/Lyft, taxi, etc.))
  - Exceptions include rental car bills (Enterprise), EZ-Pass charges, and travel cost related to system-wide meeting functions such as Board, SPMC, HRO, etc.
  - In the event that the P-Card is needed to make other CO employee travel related purchases, administrators of the P-Card should contact the Accounts Payable/Purchasing Manager prior to making the arrangements to obtain approval.

Reconciliation Deadline and Follow-up The P-Card reconciliation is due within 30 calendar days from receipt of the statement. Escalation, if necessary, will occur as follows:

- (31-45 days) – P-Card administrator contacts individual cardholder with cc: to the department vice president
• (46-60 days) – P-Card administrator contacts CFO

Failure to meet the deadline above may result in revocation of P-Card privileges.
